José Joaquín de Labayen y Larrinaga, nacido en Ugarte en 1764, probó su nobleza para ingresar en la Real Compañía de Guardias Marinas el 27 de octubre de 1781. José María de Larreategi y Labayen, natural de Bilbao, hizo lo mismo en 1867. Para ejercer cargos del Santo Oficio

Primera Generación

- 1. Raimundo Lavayén (i) was born about 1792 in Tacna, Perú. He was christened about 1792 in Tacna, Perú. He died on 24 Sep 1865 in Cochabamba, Bolivia. He was buried on 26 Sep 1865 in Cochabamba, Bolivia.

Fallece Raimundo de 73 años. No se sabe con certeza el nombre de la madre. D. Raymundo está enterrado en el atrio de la Iglesia de San Juan de Dios de Cochabamba en un sitio de honor, por haber rehecho parte de dicho templo con su propio pecunio. Existe a la fecha (año 2002) la plaqueta indicando el lugar de su sepultura y la de sus esposas. (Rolando Rivero Lavayén)

Cuenta el autor entre sus documentos con una fotocopia obtenida en Potosí datada en el año 1823 donde Raymundo Lavayén aparece junto a otros, como fiador de D. Juan Mariano de Ibarquén para tomar el cargo de Tesorero Provisto de la Caja Nacional de Rescates o Banco Nacional de Rescates de Potosí.

El 12 de diciembre de 2008, por gentileza de D. Juan José Leñero, se recibieron fotografías del testamento cerrado de Raimundo Lavayén (no indica su apellido materno) donde declara su primer matrimonio con Raimunda Maseira (sic) de cuya unión nacen varios hijos, "los más fallecidos de tierna edad" indicando que sólo sobreviven Modesto y Lucas, que pasa a segundas nupcias con su cuñada María Manuela Maseira con quien también tuvo varios hijos y que a tiempo de hacer su testamento cerrado en 8 de mayo de 1865 en Cochabamba, le sobreviven solamente tres hijos de este segundo matrimonio: 1. José María, 2. Dolores, casada y 3. Mercedes, menores. Declara haber nacido en Tacna, República del Perú. La firma en su testamento muestra su nombre escrito con "y" como en Raymundo. Con estos antecedentes y en virtud a que el vínculo con los Lavayén Toro Mazote de Salta no pudo ser establecido cronológicamente, don Raimundo resulta ser la cabeza de estirpe del apellido Lavayén en Bolivia, mientras no se lo entronque con otros del mismo apellido en Tacna u otra ciudad del Perú.

En la Revista No. 8 del Instituto Peruano de Investigaciones Genealógicas editado en Lima el año 1955, aparecen los Registros Parroquiales de la Ciudad de Tacna que se inician con el Libro de bautismos desde 1679 en la página 121, terminando en la página No. 164 con registros hasta principios de 1825, aparece el Capitán D. Bernardo de Labayén el 13 de marzo de 1680 como padrino de Matías, hijo leg. de Antonio de Barrios y doña M. de Villena. Líneas más abajo, aparece el bautizo de Gregoria de 10 días, hija leg. del Cap. D. Bernardo de Labayén y de doña Francisca Madueño. Padrino: el Cura Vicario, de fecha 19 de mayo de 1680. Puede que la familia provenga originalmente del Ecuador, cuyo genearca nació en Urroz, Pamplona, España. (Investigación de Rolando Rivero Lavayén.) Es necesario, sin embargo notar que los registros de la Iglesia de los Santos de los Últimos Días o Iglesia Mormona la cual viene haciendo un acopio de registros parroquiales en Latino América y en otras partes del mundo desde los años 1950, muestran que los primeros hijos fueron bautizados en Tacna. Ello nos indica que tanto Raimundo como su señora e hijos, residían en esa ciudad y que se trasladaron posteriormente a la ciudad de Potosí, posiblemente atraído por transacciones comerciales o mercantiles, donde se asienta la familia en Bolivia, lugar desde donde se dispersan sus descendientes al resto del país. Se cree que su suegro, don Francisco Santiago Mazeira o Maceira, había emigrado a Potosí desde Salta, lugar en el cual se relacionaron con Lavayén, resultando allí la unión de estas dos familias. En capítulo aparte mostraremos la interesante ascendencia de las hermanas Maceira por medio de su madre, que eventualmente culmina con enlaces a familias tituladas y reales, cuya sangre llevan en un grado u otro todos los descendientes de este personaje.

Datos de Jorge Rivera Sánchez, 2004.) Se tenía entendido que Raimundo entroncaba así mismo, con los Lavayén de la Argentina, lo cual no se ha podido establecer con certeza, por lo que la conexión con Salta se dá solamente por la línea de los Maceira y Graña. (R. Rivero L., 2010) nueve años sin pagar un arriendo; por el contrario, he suministrado capitales para la compra de ganadería, vituallas y varios otros gastos, según aparece de los apuntes que me suele pasar; así es que ordeno no se le haga cargo y se considere como su anticipación de su legítima, y solo en el caso de su desavenencia (lo cual no espero de él por ningún motivo, pero tal vez sus descendientes que pocas veces heredan las virtudes del padre, podrían suscitar) deberá hacerse a colación al respecto, de 2,000$, poco más o menos, por año, y entonces hecho el cúmulo de bienes procedente de esta colación, tendría lugar la distribución en iguales partes; lo expongo para que conste." La ocupación boliviana - En el segundo gobierno de Agustín Gamarra ocurre la guerra del Perú contra Bolivia. Gamarra buscaba anexar el antiguo Alto Perú al Perú, pero es derrotado en la batalla de Ingavi en 1841 por el General José Ballivián Segurola. Las tropas del General José Ballivián ocupan Puno, Moquegua, Tacna y Tarapacá y la zona sur del Perú queda al mando del coronel boliviano Rodríguez Magariños. En Sama el coronel tacneño José María Lavayén organiza una tropa que logra derrotarlo. En Locumba el coronel Manuel Mendiburú también organiza fuerzas entre quienes se encontraba Justo Arias y Aragüez en 1842. José Ballivián no tuvo éxito al intentar anexar Arica, Tacna y Tarapacá a

Bolivia puesto que sufre derrotas en Orurillo, Montón y Sama. Al final de la contienda se firma el Tratado de Puno que es el fin de esta disputa en 1842. (Bajado del Internet, 2008.)

Casada de 28 años de edad. Hermana del abuelo del autor. Persona muy respetada en todos los círculos sociales y religiosos de Cochabamba. Con motivo de su defunción, escribe en "Los Tiempos", periódico de Cochabamba, una breve semblanza de esta dama, Da. Alcira Vega de Aponte: "En todos los círculos sociales, religiosos y políticos, ha causado hondo y doloroso impacto, la inesperada muerte de tan aristocrática dama, Doña Elvira Lavayén de Aguirre. Mujer de intachables dotes, mujer de altiva envergadura en la política de una escogida "clase" que distinguía a su esclarecido abolengo. Cuando la veía pasar, luciendo un porte de reina, delineado en su delicadeza física, me venía a la mente las hugonianas frases para enmarcar su fina humanidad, y me decía en mente: "es de vidrio para llorar, de acero para resistir". Y así era ella, se doblegaba dolorida al clamor de los justos, en su horrendo calvario. Olvidaba la alba diadema que aureaba y enmarcaba el perfil de medalla de su venerable cabeza, para enfrentar con valentía sin par, a los arrogantes opresores, desafiando indomable, las fuerzas bestiales que la querían rendir. Con su léxico de fuego, fustigaba como látigo su autorizada palabra a los que querían amordazar su verdad. Orgullosa de sus hijos, de haberlos formado en la grandeza espiritual, de saberlos señores del bien y jamás opresores de sus semejantes. Madre de una artista que derrama generosa, su música en guirnalda de azul caudal. Madre de un escritor que soñando recita avizorado, desde extranjeros aledaños, lo mejor para su angustiada patria. Madre de una singular mujer que al igual que Elía, no aparenta en su delicadeza física, lo inflexible de su rectilíneo carácter que la hacen destacarse como recto puntal intachable y poderoso, entre las puras e inmaculadas filas de la F. S. B. Sin yo ser política, rindo toda mi pleitesía a esta admirable mujer. Esta es pues la recia y fabulosa herencia que deja para la Patria entera, la distinguida dama que acaba de morir y de cuya muerte, jamás nos consolaremos los seres que vivimos de pié y sólo nos arrodillamos ante Dios, y hoy nos inclinamos ante su ilustre y venerada memoria." El periódico "El Deber" de Santa Cruz, publica el siguiente obituario en fecha 15 de octubre de 2008: "Hondo vacío registran los cuadros de la sociedad cruceña y nacional en razón del fallecimiento de la señora Paquita (Paz) Amelunge de Lavayén, registrado alrededor del mediodía de ayer como consecuencia de una fulminante enfermedad._Altamente apreciada por sus valores morales, por la simpatía de su trato y por los toques de belleza espiritual y física de que estaba dotada, la señora Paquita gravitaba en la vida cruceña, en que eran rasgos singulares propios su nobleza y su empeño en la práctica cotidiana del bien._Abrazó con devociones las causas cívicas del campanario y su fe cristiana la empujó frente a las mezquindades y las pasiones subalternas. Su aliento y su mano tendida eran algo con lo que se podía contar a la hora de enfrentar las vicisitudes de la existencia. Unida por vínculos de sangre con EL DEBER y por afinidad de ideas, estuvo siempre en su puesto sin desmayos y con asombrosa entereza. Lloraremos a la señora Paquita y honraremos su memoria con el corazón hondamente dolorido hasta reencontrarnos por los caminos de Dios. (Bajado del Internet por Rolando Rivero Lavayén - Enero 2009.)

construcción de los primeros oleoductos en Bolivia, con Williams Brothers Co. (hoy The Williams Companies) de USA. Fundador y Presidente de Central Aguirre Portuaria S.A., una infraestructura portuaria que da a su país mediterráneo Bolivia, una salida al mar a través de la hidrovía Paraguay Paraná. Es así que el 11 de Septiembre de 1988, CAPSA inaugura PUERTO AGUIRRE, Primer Puerto Boliviano con acceso directo y soberano al océano Atlántico vía las aguas internacionales de la Hidrovía Paraguay – Paraná. Las primeras instalaciones portuarias se conciben para el manejo de granos y cereales a granel que fueron determinantes en el crecimiento explosivo de la producción de soya del Oriente Boliviano en la década de los años noventa.

El 21 de Febrero de 1991, el Gobierno de Bolivia otorga a Central Aguirre la concesión por cuarenta años de Zona Franca Comercial, Industrial y Terminal de Depósito y desde ese entonces ZONA FRANCA PUERTO AGUIRRE, integra su estructura de logística de transporte intermodal y los beneficios de exención arancelaria y tributaria otorgados por ley a los usuarios de la zona franca. Asimismo en 1991 se incorpora a Central Aguirre como socio accionista, a la Corporación Financiera Internacional o "IFC", entidad subsidiaria del Banco Mundial que opera en el ámbito empresarial privado. En 1996 Central Aguirre mediante un "joint venture" con CARGILL Bolivia S.A. crean Aguirre Agro-Bolivia S.A. (AABSA), empresa que opera en el ámbito agrícola agroindustrial. (FPTC) otro "joint venture" con The Williams Companies Inc., e implementa una terminal portuaria de hidrocarburos líquidos facilitando la logística de importación de combustible diesel (para el consumo principalmente del sector agrícola del Oriente Boliviano) y viabilizando nuevas exportaciones de gasolina y alcohol.

El 23 de Marzo de 2005, Central Aguirre inaugura la Primera Terminal de Contenedores de Bolivia, una nueva alternativa competitiva y segura de logística de transporte para el Comercio Exterior de Bolivia (importaciones y exportaciones). Este nuevo emprendimiento permite la apertura de nuevos mercados para las exportaciones bolivianas hacia el MERCOSUR y a países de ultramar, al tener una logística confiable y competitiva en tiempo y costo.

De un artículo de "Los Tiempos" del 8 de enero de 2011:

La madrugada del viernes 07 de enero, Joaquín Aguirre Lavayén dio su último suspiro. El año 2011 llega llevándose a uno de los personajes bolivianos más importantes del Siglo XX.

Fue diplomático, investigador, empresario e incluso inventor. Nació el 30 de marzo de 1921, en pocos meses hubiera cumplido 90 años.

Es autor de "Más allá del Horizonte", "Guano Maldito", "Adela Zamudio", "Guerrillera del Parnaso", "En las Nieves Rosadas de los Andes", "Puerto Aguirre-Historia de un Sueño Imposible", "Guerra del Pacífico-Pacto de Tregua con Chile 1884" y "La Patria Grande", además de varios artículos aparecidos en revistas, periódicos y otras publicaciones.

En Cochabamba estudió en la Universidad Mayor de San Simón y, en La Paz, en la Universidad Mayor de San Andrés. En 1941 obtuvo una beca en Dartmouth Collage, New Hampshire (Estados Unidos) donde se graduó, en 1945, como licenciado en Filosofía y Literatura Comparada. Además cursó estudios de post grado en Literatura, Dirección Teatral y Cinematografía en la Universidad de Stanford, Carolina.

Residió un tiempo en Colombia, desde 1953, donde creó la primera cadena de supermercados y la primera fábrica de cereales precocidos para niños.

En 1963 instaló en Estados Unidos una planta piloto aplicando una nueva tecnología para industrializar banano, invento considerado importante en el campo de la deshidratación de frutas tropicales y que patentó en ese país.

En 1945 fue nombrado secretario de la delegación de Bolivia para la Conferencia de San Francisco que creó la Organización de las Naciones Unidas (ONU); en 1976 obtuvo el cargo de Presidente de la Corporación Boliviana de Fomento; y en 1994 fue designado Senador de la República de Bolivia por el departamento de Cochabamba. Aguirre Lavayén trabajó en la construcción del primer oleoducto Camiri-Sucre-Cochabamba.

El 13 de noviembre de 2010, cuando se lo distinguía en una ceremonia, con el título de doctor honoris causa en la Universidad Católica de Cochabamba, se leyó el discurso que el autor había preparado pero que no pudo leerlo en público a causa de lo delicado de su salud.

“Hubiera sinceramente deseado compartir hoy mi presencia en esta ilustre universidad para agradecer la honrosa distinción con el nombramiento de Doctor Honoris Causa con el que han tenido la gentileza de honrarme [...] Entre las mayores satisfacciones que he tenido en mi vida, está la relacionada con la oportunidad que me dio el destino de contribuir a la creación de esta universidad tan importante para el desarrollo de la educación superior en nuestra patria...”, fueron sus palabras.

Puerto Aguirre, un hito histórico

En la trayectoria política y empresarial de Joaquín Aguirre Lavayén, uno de sus méritos más grandes fue la creación en 1988 de Puerto Aguirre, la primera salida portuaria boliviana al Atlántico por la hidrovía Paraguay-Paraná, alternativa fluvial que redujo en más de 75 por ciento los costos de transporte permitiendo a las exportaciones bolivianas acceso a mercados de ultramar a precios competitivos. Puerto Aguirre es un factor imprescindible para la implementación del proyecto "Tierras Bajas del Este" del Banco Mundial (que comprende un financiamiento de 75 millones de dólares) para el desarrollo agrícola del oriente boliviano. Como resultado de esta iniciativa en menos de cinco años, Bolivia se ha convertido en el séptimo mayor productor y exportador de soya y subproductos del mundo, con perspectivas de acelerar aún más su producción. En 1991 Central Aguirre se convierte en la primera Zona Franca Comercial e Industrial de Bolivia. En 1997, inaugura la primera terminal petrolera de Bolivia sobre aguas internacionales y el 23 de marzo de 2005, Puerto Aguirre inaugura la primera terminal de contenedores y carga general permitiendo que Bolivia se vincule al Atlántico a los países del Mercosur de manera eficiente.

Los Tiempos le hizo a Joaquín Aguirre Lavayén un homenaje en vida

Dos últimos homenajes en vida

Antes de la muerte de Joaquín Aguirre Lavayén, el matutino Los Tiempos, por un lado, y el Centro Simón I. Patiño de Cochabamba, por otro, fueron las dos últimas instituciones que le rindieron homenaje al escritor que falleció ayer en la madrugada. El homenaje de Los Tiempos se realizó a propósito del bicentenario de Cochabamba donde además se entregó a la familia una plaqueta de reconocimiento por la trayectoria literaria, política y empresarial de Aguirre Lavayén. Asimismo, el Centro Simón I. Patiño le hizo el año pasado un homenaje con la edición de un video documental de su obra y editó una publicación en la que se incluye una semblanza escrita por Mariano Baptista Gumucio. Fragmento Este es un fragmento del artículo de Baptista publicado en la revista Boletín Literario Número 19 de este Centro Cultural.

“Y hablemos de Guano Maldito, la novela histórica sobre los orígenes de la Guerra del Pacífico y la intervención en ella —elemento nuevo que exhumó Joaquín en diversas bibliotecas del mundo, entre ellas la británica— de la intervención de la Casa Gibbs y otras empresas inglesas asociadas a los chilenos [...] Hasta la aparición de esta novela no había en la historiografía boliviana, una explicación coherente sobre la manera en que a base de entendimientos bajo cuerda, avispados empresarios europeos se asociaron a comerciantes y mandatarios bolivianos, chilenos y peruanos, en el fabuloso negocio de la exportación de miles de toneladas de excremento de pájaros marinos, para revitalizar las áridas tierras europeas. [...] En la obra de Aguirre Lavayén, los pájaros marinos cuentan con desparpajo esa historia de empresarios avispados, generales y políticos corrompidos, todos con nombre y apellido.”

Gonzalo Sánchez de Lozada y Sánchez Bustamante (1930) es un político y empresario boliviano. Presidente de Bolivia en dos ocasiones (1993-1997; 2002-2003). Fue un estrecho colaborador del ex-presidente Víctor Paz Estenssoro del cual fue Ministro de Planeamiento y Coordinación en su último período de gobierno (1985-1989). Perteneciente al Movimiento Nacionalista Revolucionario (MNR), partido precursor de la revolución nacionalista de 1952, que incluyó medidas como la reforma agraria, el sufragio universal, la reforma educativa, la nacionalización de las minas y, entre la mitad de la década de los '80 y toda la década de los '90, gestor de la política económica neoliberal en Bolivia. Gonzalo Sánchez de Lozada, popularmente conocido como "Goni", nació en Cochabamba , el 1 de julio de 1930. Su abuelo materno fue Daniel Sánchez Bustamante, fundador a comienzos del siglo XX de las primeras escuelas fiscales y la primera escuela normal de formación de maestros, por lo que luego fue proclamado "Maestro de la Juventud Boliviana" a su muerte en 1933. Hijo de Enrique Sánchez de Lozada, transcurrió parte de su niñez y juventud en los Estados Unidos, por ser su padre primero diplomático en Washington DC (1931-1936) y luego exiliado durante 16 años (1936-1952), por su militancia en el MNR. Por esta razón, Goni domina a la perfección el idioma inglés, incluso más que el español.

Estudió Filosofía y Letras en la Universidad de Chicago y luego retornó a Bolivia donde se inició en el mundo empresarial como productor de cine con la empresa Telecine. Posteriormente entró en el negocio extractivo con una empresa de servicios petroleros, para luego pasar a la minería creando la empresa privada más importante del rubro: la Compañía Minera del Sur (COMSUR), explotadora y comercializadora de minerales en canteras del altiplano boliviano, amasando una de las más grandes, sino la más grande fortuna de Bolivia.

Afiliado desde 1951 al Movimiento Nacionalista Revolucionario, ingresó en el mundo de la política en 1979 como diputado por Cochabamba. Luego fue electo senador por este partido y Presidente del Senado Nacional (1985-1986) por muy poco tiempo, porque fue llamado a ocupar el cargo de Ministro de Planeamiento y Coordinación, cartera encargada de las materias macroeconómicas y financieras del gobierno. En agosto de 1986 fue el encargado de aplicar la terapia de shock para frenar la galopante hiperinflación (del orden del 27.000%), que azotaba al país, mediante el famoso Decreto Supremo 21060. La política económica aplicada frenó la inflación y contribuyó a arreglar las cuentas del estado, a costa, sin embargo, de extensos despidos en el sector minero ("relocalización") y recortes a programas sociales. Esta "receta" económica neoliberal, fue exportada a otros países de América por su probado éxito en materia inflacionaria.

En las elecciones presidenciales de 1989 ganó la nominación interna de su partido para ser el candidato a la Presidencia de la República. Ya como candidato decidió romper el "Pacto por la Democracia" con su entonces aliado político, el ex-dictador, Hugo Banzer Suárez, Jefe Nacional de la derechista Acción Democrática Nacionalista (ADN). Banzer debía recibir el apoyo del MNR a cambio del apoyo que brindó el partido de Banzer, desde el Congreso, a las medidas económicas del gobierno de Víctor Paz Estenssoro. Sánchez de Lozada resultó el candidato más votado de la elección, pero lejos de la mayoría absoluta, por lo que no pudo acceder a la presidencia, ya que Banzer (que quedó en segundo lugar con el 25,2% de votos) decidió dar su apoyo a Jaime Paz Zamora, del Movimiento de Izquierda Revolucionaria (MIR) en el Congreso Nacional, nombrando al tercer candidato más votado, Presidente de la República.

Primera Presidencia 1993-1997

En las elecciones generales celebradas en junio de 1993 se volvió a presentar como candidato por el MNR, obteniendo otra vez el primer lugar con el 35,6% de votos, pero igualmente sin mayoría absoluta. En la votación en el Congreso, Sánchez de Lozada obtuvo la Presidencia con los votos y en alianza con el izquierdista Movimiento Bolivia Libre (MBL), el populista Unión Cívica Solidaridad (UCS) del empresario cervecero Max Fernández Rojas y el partido indigenista Movimiento Revolucionario Tupac Katari de Liberación, (MRTKL), de Víctor Hugo Cárdenas, intelectual indígena que accedía a la Vicepresidencia de la República por primera vez en la historia republicana.

En el ejercicio de su primer mandato que culminaría en 1997, promulgó importantes reformas legislativas y constitucionales como la Ley de Participación Popular, que municipalizó el territorio nacional mediante la creación de más de 300 gobiernos locales, a los que daba por primera vez en Bolivia cierta autonomía y capacidad financiera, además de la creación de los Territorios Comunitarios de Origen (TCO) para pueblos indígenas; la Ley INRA que obligaba a la certificación por parte del estado, a través del Instituto Nacional de Reforma Agraria (INRA), al cumplimiento de la Función Económica y Social de la tierra, entre otras cosas; la Ley Forestal, que incorporaba a indígenas, organizaciones populares y empresarios en la explotación sostenible de los bosques; la Reforma Educativa, que incluía por primera vez el multiculturalismo y el plurilingüismo en la educación oficial boliviana; el Seguro Materno Infantil; y la modernización del Código Penal, entre otras. Entre las reformas constitucionales destacan: la creación del Tribunal Constitucional que vela por la constitucionalidad de leyes, decretos o resoluciones; la creación de las circunscripciones uninominales para la elección directa de diputados; la creación de la figura del Defensor del Pueblo que vela por los derechos humanos y las garantías de las personas; entre otras reformas.

En el aspecto económico el gobierno de Sánchez de Lozada promovió un amplio y polémico programa de reformas, en el que destaca el proceso de Capitalización de empresas públicas, que privatizó el 50% de la empresa de ferrocarriles (ENFE), de petróleo (YPFB), de telecomunicaciones (ENTEL), de electricidad (ENDE) y la línea aérea de bandera (LAB). El otro 50%, que quedó en propiedad del Estado, fue transferido a un Fondo de Capitalización Colectiva (FCC), gestionado por las Administradoras de Fondos de Pensiones (AFP). Todos los bolivianos, residentes en el país, mayores de 21 años al 31 de diciembre de 1995, eran los beneficiarios de dicho fondo. Con las utilidades correspondientes al FCC de las empresas capitalizadas, se pagó, por primera vez en Bolivia, un bono anual a los ancianos mayores de 65 años, llamado Bonosol, aún hoy vigente con algunas modificaciones llevadas a cabo posteriormente, primero por el segundo gobierno de Hugo Banzer (1997-2001) (Bolivia) y luego en 2008 por el gobierno de Evo Morales -) (Renta Dignidad).

Después de transcurridos algunos años de la puesta en marcha del Proceso de Capitalización, las expectativas de la población no fueron colmadas y aún se tiene la percepción de que no fue una real inyección de capital sino simplemente la venta del 50% de las acciones a manos privadas, sin que se hayan cumplido las inversiones comprometidas, ni se haya mejorado los servicios que prestan las nuevas empresas creadas a partir de las antiguas empresas estatales.

Según algunos analistas, uno de los mayores errores políticos de Sánchez de Lozada fue el gradual desmembramiento de la empresa nacional de hidrocarburos YPFB, que aunque fue concluido por gobiernos posteriores y, aunque llevó a importantes inversiones extranjeras, no tomó en cuenta el sentimiento de la gente hacia un emblema nacional, que fue creada inmediatamente después de la finalización de la Guerra del Chaco, para que explote las grandes riquezas hidrocarburíferas que se defendieron en dicha contienda. En 1997 Sánchez de Lozada fue sucedido en la Presidencia por Hugo Banzer Suárez de ADN, quien ganó las elecciones con una pequeña votación pero logró crear una gran coalición con el MIR de Jaime Paz Zamora y otros pequeños partidos populistas.

No hay que olvidar que durante la presidencia de Sánchez de Lozada comienza el proceso de búsqueda en Bolivia de los restos de Ernesto Guevara, el Che, considerado hasta entonces por muchos como el ejecutor de un abortado plan de invasión extranjera. Goni autorizó las excavaciones de un equipo de arqueólogos cubanos-argentinos, en el área de la pista de aviación de Vallegrande, departamento de Santa Cruz, para la búsqueda de los restos del Che y otros guerrilleros, excavaciones que permitieron encontrar el cuerpo del comandante guerrillero para luego ser repatriados a Cuba.

Segunda Presidencia 2002-2003

Gonzalo Sánchez de Lozada, asume la Presidencia de la República de Bolivia al ganar por tercera vez una elección nacional. Como la legislación boliviana exige la mayoría de los votos para ser electo presidente, Sánchez de Lozada y Evo Morales fueron a una segunda vuelta congresal, al ser los dos candidatos más votados. Sánchez de Lozada es electo por una alianza de su partido el MNR, con el MIR (Movimiento de Izquierda Revolucionaria), al que luego se sumaría NFR (Nueva Fuerza Republicana) dividiendo los cargos políticos entre los 3 partidos. Es decir, una cantidad proporcional de ministerios para cada partido político y cuotas de poder para los miembros de la coalición. En febrero del año 2003 ante el desesperante déficit fiscal heredado y ante las imposiciones del Fondo Monetario Internacional (FMI) el gobierno decide aplicar un impuesto al salario (impuestazo), el cual provoca una huelga y amotinamiento policial, que luego derivaría en un enfrentamiento armado con las Fuerzas Armadas en la Plaza Murillo de la ciudad de La Paz, que deja un saldo de más de 20 muertos. El retroceso en la medida logró mantener a Sánchez de Lozada en el poder por unos meses más, pero el desgaste y la pérdida de gobernabilidad se hacía cada vez más evidente. En septiembre y octubre de 2003, ante rumores sobre la intención de exportar gas boliviano por puertos chilenos a la costa oeste de los EE.UU., a México y a Chile, empiezan las movilizaciones sociales en el Altiplano boliviano y en la ciudad de El Alto. El gobierno responde con una fuerte represión militar que deja un saldo de 65 personas muertas y cientos de heridos, lo que provocó la movilización de sectores de clase media, sobretodo panceños, que exigían la renuncia de Sánchez de Lozada. Acosado por estos sectores y ante la pérdida de apoyo de los partidos que formaban la coalición de gobierno (MIR y NFR), el 17 de octubre Sánchez de Lozada renuncia a la Presidencia de la República mediante carta al Congreso Nacional e inmediatamente deja el país. Esa misma noche, el Congreso Nacional, luego de aceptar la renuncia de Sánchez de Lozada, toma el juramento de rigor al Vicepresidente de la República Carlos Mesa. Hoy en día Gonzalo Sanchez de Lozada reside en Washington DC, Estados Unidos. (Datos de Wikipedia en el Internet, 2008 bajados por Rolando Rivero Lavayén).
